Why do you want this person to attend a Walk to Emmaus? _____

Emmaus is right for many people, but not for everyone. Some examples of people for whom Emmaus may not be appropriate are: non-Christians and people with no relationship with the church of Jesus Christ; persons undergoing an emotional crisis; Christians whose theology and/or practice is notably different or incompatible with the traditional theology and practice represented by the Walk to Emmaus; "church hoppers", and persons who are always looking for another spiritual "high".

If your Pilgrim meets any of these categories, please explain why an exception should be made.

I have read the CIE Sponsorship Information found on the CIE web page (www.emmausci.org) or Emmaus Sponsorship Handbook and pledge with Christ's help to do my best to meet this responsibility. I have also prayed about this Pilgrim and believe that he/she is ready to attend The Walk to Emmaus.
